JLK Professionals s.r.o. was started In May 2015 By John Nuttall. After 17 years working globally for a tier one automotive supplier. Time which included introducing WCM and WCE under the watchful gaze of their author Professor H. Yamashina. JLK has one simple objective in mind. To help individuals, businesses and organisations (who want to be helped) be better at what they do.

We have seen in countless places and situations. Where intelligent, hardworking committed people. In companies, big and small. Are trying to invent solutions, for problems they think are unique. When in fact, practical tried and tested solution exist. So, let us help you.
